You Have a Vital Stake in Telephone Bargaining:

It's YOUR money that pays telephone wages

Southern Bell Wages and Working Conditions Already Are Among the Best-Any Increase in Wages would Have to be Paid By Telephone Customers-There is No Other way Wage Increase Can Be Paid

You have a vital stake in telephone wage negotiations for it's the money you pay in to us that we pay out in telephone wages

Telephone employees are well paid Their wages compare favorably with the wages pair. by other concerns in the community for work requiring similar skills

Telephone wage rates have been increased 117'; since 1939, compared with an increase of less than 70% in the cost of hims

But wages are not the whole story Telephone employees have the advantage of steady work, with no seasonal layoffs. They get vacations with pay, up to three weeks, plus six holidays a year. In addition, they enjoy the real security provided by one of the best pension and benefit plans in any industry. Among other things, it provides:

- A pension with a minimum of $100 a month, including Social Security, at age 65, and liberal provisions for earlier retirement.
- Sickness and accident benefits, up to a full year's pay, depending on length of service.
- Death benefits, up to one full year's wage, depending on length of service.

For all of these benefits, the employee pays nothing — the Company pays all

Any way you look at it-wages, working conditions, pensions and benefits-telephone employees are doing all right. And that's the way we think it should be It takes all these things to get and keep good people.

The telephone business is regulated in a way that Unions and most other businesses are not Federal and State Commissions determine the rates we charge for service. Any increase in telephone wages would force us to ask for an increase in telephone rates.

What About The Contract?

Southern Bell and the CWA-CIO are engaged in collective bargaining on wages at the request of the Union We earnestly hope that a settlement can be reached that will be fair to the employees, to telephone users and to the company. Meanwhile, the public has every right to expect uninterrupted service under the present contract between the Company and the Union, which provides that, quoting the contract itself. "UNDER NO CIRCUM-STANCES MAY IT (The Contract) BE TER-MINATED EARLIER THAN JUNE 5, 1950.

from his confinement and overcomes almost insurmountable obstacles in his fixed determination to take up a vigil by his master's grave. The stratagem by which Gwenn and his friends convince the skeptical judge of Lassie's heroism and the stirring climax in which the dog is given the key to the city make for a motion picture which delight every member of the audience from eight to eighty.

The new role offers Lassie every opportunity for a display of his remarkable intelligence and almost human personality, while Edmund Gwenn as the strong-willed inn-keeper, Donald Crisp as the gentle shepherd and Reginald Owen as the stubborn police sergeant responsible for what turns out to be a "cause celebre" are uniformly excellent. Geraldine Brooks and Ross Ford prove an attractive team in the story's romantic moments and others who offer good support include Alan Webb, Henry Stephenson, Alan Napier and Sara Allgood. Director Richard Thorpe and Robert Sisk, on the producing end, have given their picture the utmost fidelity of background, and the picturesque set tings of Edinburgh and the surrounding sheep country are magnificently photographed in Technicolor.
